

TCU Laboratory Waste Information: Where does my waste go??

Laboratory Liquid Waste	Laboratory Solid Waste	Broken Glass (Uncontaminated)	Contaminated Sharps (non-Biohaz)	Biohazardous Sharps	Solid Waste (Uncontaminated)	Empty Chemical Containers
Choose a COMPATIBLE container for constituents. Affix Laboratory Waste label EHS disposal	For chemically contaminated solid waste, including gloves, filter paper, pipets, etc. Affix Laboratory Waste label EHS disposal	For uncontaminated broken glassware DO NOT OVERFILL Facility Services disposal Work Order Required	Sharps or glassware that are chemically contaminated DO NOT OVERFILL EHS disposal	Sharps or glassware contaminated with a biological hazard DO NOT OVERFILL EHS disposal	Traditional waste not contaminated with chemical or biological hazards Regular trash. Facility Services disposal	Container marked EMPTY Regular trash or Recycling. EHS or Facility Services disposal

For questions about waste disposal or collection – Please contact the Environmental Health & Safety (EHS) office at safety@tcu.edu or ext. 3687